

Bowl (Thailand) 408#

CONSTANCE GRIESMER

An unfamiliar dish
the color of my bowl noodles look like the design, except they are separated.
What else would they be ...
My chopsticks are poised now over my cold food
as I stare from one design to the other.
I will commend the cook
for keen observation.

Like old friends
my schedule and possessions mingle life rambles off course connects where it pleases conducting the change train.
